

Accelerate Business Innovation Through Smart, Agile SaaS Solutions

OVERVIEW

In its annual Global 100 Software Leaders Report, PwC mentions that the emergence of SaaS, Cloud and IT consumerization are expected to advance the future of software industry. Gartner on the other hand estimates that SaaS market is expected to expand up to $22.1 billion by 2015.

AL TEN Calsoft Labs has been one of the early adopters of SaaS and has almost a decade of experience in building scalable, multi-tenant, reliable and cost effective SaaS solutions. With an engineering and holistic approach, thought leadership, broad service offerings, proven implementation experience, our SaaS solutions have transformed Enterprises and ISVs to become nimble and agile.

We have a unique value proposition addressing the architectural, operational and customer centric challenges faced during SaaS enablement through complete delivery ownership, effective project execution & governance models and technology CoEs (Microsoft, Opensource/JAVA, Mobility and Cloud).
